This will be an informal talk in the chapel of the church and is open to the public with no admission. It will be given under the auspices of the Men's League of this church.

St. J. Court C. O. F. Banquet.

Presentations to Dr. Bachand and Alexander Leclerc A Feature of the Banquet.

St. Johnsbury Court, No. 300, C. O. F., enjoyed a banquet on Thursday evening at their rooms in St. Agnes hall. The affair was in honor of Dr. J. D. Bachand, who recently won the sword offered by Harmony Band, and Alexander Leclerc, who won a medal of the legion of honor given by the State Court. The Guard of Honor met their captain, Dr. Bachand, at his residence and bearing torches, escorted him to the hall. There were 110 guests at the banquet including those from out of town. Dr. C. A. Prevost was toastmaster and these toasts were given: "The Church," "Our Order," "Our Hosts," "Our Adopted Country," and "Our Guests." The speakers were Thomas A. Austin of Brattleboro, secretary of the State Court, David S. Frechette, Alexander Leclerc, Dr. J. D. Bachand and Joseph Cusson and Joseph Beauchamp of Lyndonville. Harmony Band orchestra furnished music for the occasion. Telegrams of regret were received from Louis Alapa of Burlington, chief ranger of the State Court, Simeon Vinger of Lawrence, Mass., trustee of the Supreme Court, Mayor Bachand of Sherbrooke, Dr. Walter P. Desmond of Medford, Mass., Rev. Fr. Gauthier of Hyde Park and C. E. Bachand and Arthur Cormier of Sherbrooke. Several of the courts in the state sent congratulations and taken together the banquet was a great success. It was in charge of Joseph Couillard, ex-chief ranger, of St. Johnsbury Court.

The events of the evening were the presentations. The Legion of Honor medal was presented Alexander Leclerc, Chief Ranger, by Thomas A. Austin, secretary of the State Court, and Dr. J. D. Bachand was presented by the Guard of Honor, a gold filled belt with gold trimmings, to wear with the sword won in the Harmony Band contest. Joseph Couillard had charge of the belt presentation and J. R. Prevost, Master of the Guard, made an address to which Dr. Bachand responded.

Nothing Better than "Page's Perfected Poultry Food."

D. J. Lambert of Apponaug, R. I., the maker of the famous "Death to Lice" remedies, and who is known all over the country as a poultry expert, says there is nothing better than "Page's Perfected Poultry Food." Here are his exact words: "Rations should vary with different seasons. Some kind of animal food is necessary at all times, and I have found nothing better or handier than 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food.' If you want to know more about this food and the best ways of using it, write to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., for his booklet, 'Profitable Poultry.' It will be sent free, postpaid, to anyone mentioning this paper."

Legal Notice.

Passumpsic Savings Bank, in Chancery, Caledonia County, N. A. Ross, et al. vs. N. A. Ross, et al. The Passumpsic Savings Bank, a corporation located at St. Johnsbury, in the County of Caledonia and State of Vermont, has entered in the Court of Chancery for the County of Caledonia, its petition for foreclosure against N. A. Ross, et al. several others, and also against Charles H. Childs & Co., alias, C. H. Childs & Co., a corporation located at Upton, County of Andover and State of New York, setting forth, in substance, the execution of certain conditional deeds, from said Bank to said Ross, of certain premises described therein, conditioned for the payment of certain mortgage debts, to said Bank; some of the said mortgage debts are conditional, not only for the payment of the sums specified therein, but also for the payment of all sums due or to become due from said Ross to the said Bank.

Among the said mortgage debts are the following: One dated Oct. 28, 1890, including premises in Woodbury, the same conveyed by R. M. Pray, admr., to said Ross and recorded in book 13 p. 418 Woodbury Land Records, to secure a note of $900, and all other indebtedness, one dated Aug. 25, 1900, including premises in St. Johnsbury, conveyed to said Ross by said Bank and recorded in Stannard Land Records, to secure a note of $900, and other indebtedness, one dated Nov. 22, 1902, including premises conveyed to said Ross by Geo. C. Wright, dated July 17, 1902, of premises in Woodbury, recorded in Woodbury Land Records, one dated Dec. 17, 1902, of premises in Greensboro, Vermont, and other indebtedness, one dated Jan. 19, 1904, and recorded in book 17 p. 228, Warden Land Records, conditional for the payment of a note of $400, and all other demands and obligations, one dated Feb. 7, 1908, of the premises conveyed by said Ross to A. C. McMahon by deed dated Oct. 8, 1906, situate in Walden, and afterwards conveyed to said Ross in mortgage by said McMahon and wife, Florence, to secure the payment of certain notes and obligations, one dated Aug. 31, 1907, of premises in Woodbury, the same premises described in mortgage heretofore set forth in said Nov. 21, 1905, also same premises conveyed by said Ross by C. T. Jennings, admr., June 25, 1897, recorded in book 13 p. 442 Woodbury Land Record, conditional for the payment of certain notes. That on the 16th and 18th days of April, 1908, and after the execution delivery of all the said mortgages, and above described, to petitioner, deft. Ross executed two mortgage deeds, of the dates last above set forth, to said Charles H. Childs & Co., alias, C. H. Childs & Co., of all the premises herein described, to secure an alleged indebtedness of $1500; that there is now due petitioner from deft. Ross, under the conditional deeds and mortgages set forth in his petition, including the mortgages herein described, in all the money, in and out of, to wit, $8000. And praying for a decree of foreclosure against all of the defendants named in the petition.

It being made to appear that the deft. C. H. Childs & Co., alias Charles H. Childs & Co., has been heretofore notified, so that a citation cannot be served upon it; it is ordered, that the said Charles H. Childs & Co., alias, C. H. Childs & Co., enter its appearance with the clerk of the Court of Chancery for the County of Caledonia, at St. Johnsbury, in the County of Caledonia, on or before the 28th day of December, 1909, and file its answer on or before the 13th day of January, 1910, or said bill will be taken as confessed as to it; and it is further ordered, by the court, that notice of the said petition be given to said C. H. Childs & Co., alias Charles H. Childs & Co., by publication of the substance of the petition together with this order, three weeks successively, in the St. Johnsbury Caledonian, a newspaper published in said Caledonia County, the last of which publication to be at least twenty days prior to the 28th day of December, 1909.

Given under my hand at St. Johnsbury in the County of Caledonia, this 16th day of November, A. D. 1909.

ALBRO P. NICHOLS, Clerk.
B. E. BULLARD, Solicitor.

Probate of Will.

ESTATE OF OLIVE W. HOWARD. STATE OF VERMONT, Caledonia District, ss. The Honorable Probate Court for the district of Caledonia. To all persons interested in the estate of Olive W. Howard, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district deceased, greeting: At a probate court, holden at St. Johnsbury within and for said district on the 15th day of Nov. A. D. 1909, an instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Olive W. Howard, late of St. Johnsbury, in said district, deceased, was presented to court aforesaid, for probate.

And it is ordered by said court that the 4th day of Dec. A. D. 1909, at the probate office in said St. Johnsbury, be assigned for proving said instrument; and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned, by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Caledonian, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, in said district, previous to the time appointed.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said will, if you have cause.
